MARRIOTT TO OPEN BRAND NEW RESIDENCE INN HOTEL IN DOWNTOWN MEMPHIS, TENNESSEE

MEMPHIS, Tenn., – Wright Investment Properties, Inc. has opened the brand new 90-suite Residence Inn by Marriott Monroe Avenue. The newest addition to Downtown Memphis, the historic Residence Inn, registered with the National Historical Registry, formerly the William Len Building is elegantly and beautifully appointed in the style of art deco, just as it was when the hotel originally debuted in 1930. The Residence Inn by Marriott Memphis Downtown has unveiled a magnificent renovation to include 90 spacious studio, one and two bedroom suites, a beautiful lobby, hearth room and mezzanine area with many of the original architectural features, a library, business center, billiards room, rooftop hot tub and lounge deck and meeting facilities to accommodate up to 50 people including a pre-set boardroom.

Developed by Wright Investment Properties, the Residence Inn by Marriott Memphis Downtown is destined to captivate the sense of travelers from around the globe.

Overlooking the Mississippi River in the heart of downtown, this new hotel was designed to be a home away from home and provides spacious accommodations for guest comfort.

All suites feature a fully equipped kitchen, free high-speed Internet access, two dual-line phones with voice mail and data port, free local phone calls, iron and ironing board, coffee maker, hairdryer, marble bathroom vanity, daily newspaper, complimentary in-room coffee and tea service, 27” television with first-run movies, premium movie channels and DVD players.
